1. OVERALL EFFECTIVENESS

MAIN FINDINGS

St Bede's is an outstanding school led by an innovative head teacher, who, together with the Governing Body, fully and actively promotes and develops the Catholic life of the school. The school's Mission Statement, encompassed in "Let our Light Shine", is evident in every aspect of school life. Parents, staff, Parish Priest and Governors are extremely positive about the school. They are proud to be part of such a welcoming, caring community. They praise the pivotal role the head teacher plays and acknowledge the positive impact her leadership has on the life of the school.

St Bede's provides a warm, caring, supportive environment where everyone is treated with mutual respect. The children are actively involved in the life of the school. They are polite, well behaved young people who relish responsibility and are conscientious about making a difference through the duties entrusted to them. They articulate clearly their mission as a member of a Catholic school. In the words of one pupil "just as Jesus had a mission to spread the Word, we are trying to carry this on, we are making a stand". Collectively, they praise the support they receive from the adults in school and understand the part they have to play in their mission of Worship, Love, Respect, Learn.

Outcomes for pupils are outstanding. Attainment is well above average and progress in oral and written work is outstanding. The quality of teaching overall is outstanding. Leaders and managers have an accurate and perceptive view of the school's strengths and areas for development. School self evaluation is rigorous and staff and governors are relentless in their effort for continual improvement. The school's success is a testament to the vision, energy and drive of the head teacher, who, together with a dedicated team of staff and governors, has the capacity to ensure that St Bede's mission in Catholic Education shines forth as a beacon of excellence.

What the school needs to do to improve further:

- Further develop and embed pupils' skills in planning, leading and responding to Collective Worship
- Ensure that levels of attainment remain consistently high throughout the school
- Continue to share outstanding practice in monitoring standards in Religious Education and the positive impact on pupil attainment.

2. PUPILS

How good outcomes are for pupils, taking into account variations between groups.

Pupils at St Bede's are empowered to take on roles and responsibilities enabling them to make an outstanding contribution to their school community. They have an exceptionally clear understanding of the gospel call to justice and service. This is lived out in their relationships with each other and their concern for those less fortunate than themselves. Pupils have a strong sense of personal worth and this is manifested in their desire to contribute to the Catholic life of the school in many ways including Playtime Friends, Eco Warriors, Worship Leaders and School Councillors. As a Rights Respecting School they understand that with rights comes responsibility and, in proportion to their years, they take full responsibility for themselves and their actions.

Standards pupils achieve in Religious Education in all Key Stages are exceptionally high. Attainment at the end of Key Stage 2 is significantly above average. The vast majority of pupils make at least good progress and some make outstanding progress at the end of Key Stage 2. Pupils have developed an exceptional work ethic. There is a buzz of learning in all classrooms where enthusiastic pupils are engaged, focussed and keen to succeed. A real strength of the school is the knowledge, understanding and skill the pupils have and how they can relate this to everyday life. They grasp opportunities to share this in class, from the child in the Foundation Stage constructing Bethlehem in the sand tray who can retell the Christmas story and articulate clearly that "Jesus is watching us all the time" to the boy in Year 6 who can confidently explain the Incarnation.

Pupils have the opportunity to regularly prepare and lead Acts of Worship. They show respect for each other and are confident in choosing a variety of ways to present their Worship using the elements of Gather, Word, Response and Mission. However there is scope here to deepen and embed their skills further, inspiring them in deep thought and heartfelt response.

3. PROVISION

How effective the provision is for Catholic education

Teaching is consistently effective in enthusing pupils and ensuring that they learn extremely well. Excellent subject knowledge, combined with thorough lesson planning and a high regard for the individual learning styles, enables all pupils to sustain their concentration and thoroughly enjoy their work. Every opportunity is taken by the teaching staff, including the highly effective use of deep, probing questions, to deepen, extend and develop pupils' progress in Religious Education. In all lessons pupils are engaged and enthusiastic about learning, ranging from the Foundation children in their outdoor learning area making the journey to Bethlehem and eventually arriving at the purposefully constructed stable, to the pupils in Year 5 exploring the concept of Hope through William Holman Hunt's painting, The Light of the World. In proportion to their years, pupils clearly articulate the level they are working at. Marking and dialogue between teachers, support staff and pupils, including the effective practice of modelling responses, provide a solid structure for all pupils to make exceptional progress as learners in Religious Education.

At St Bede's Religious Education is recognised as the core subject in the life of the school reaching out to strengthen home, school and parish links. The Religious Education programme Come and See has been effectively introduced and is well resourced. The programme is used creatively within school to engage and motivate the pupils, securing memorable learning. The Religious Education curriculum fully meets the external requirements of the Bishops' Conference and is responsive to Diocesan circumstances.

Collective worship is central to the life of St Bede's and a key part of every school celebration. From the earliest years through to Year 6, pupils are taught how to choose themes relating to the Church's mission and use these to effectively plan and lead daily Acts of Worship. These are often shared with parents and extended family. Worship leaders work in partnership with the staff to plan and prepare for more formal prayer opportunities. Pupils attend Mass in church weekly during the liturgical seasons of Lent and Advent. Parents comment on the positive example this gives to the community as children and staff make the journey on foot to St Bede's Roman Catholic Church.

The quality of provision for the Catholic Life of the school is outstanding. The learning environment provides a wealth of rich and meaningful opportunities for pupils, parents and staff to develop and strengthen their relationship with God. Excellent display work celebrates the extent to which issues of justice and peace are promoted across the curriculum, including Fair Trade promises, Eco team news and fundraising support for the victims of the earthquake in the Philippines. Children and their unique nature are recognised as an integral part of the faith family at St Bede's. The school promotes and develops positive, purposeful and harmonious relationships within and beyond the school community.
